AS it is our earneſt Deſire to aſſiſt the noble and diſintereſted Intentions of John Page, Eſq; in extending the Benefits of the late Mr. WARD's Medicines to the Poor; and as the Expence of the Sale of the Book of Receipts publiſhed by Mr. Page, may prevent the Knowledge of the Excellency of theſe Medicines falling into the Hands of inferior Perſons, who may ſtand in the utmoſt Need of their Aſſiſtance, we have reſolved to publiſh Extracts from the ſaid Book of the Efficacy and Benefits of the ſaid Medicines, which will be given Gratis to all Perſons applying to

And though it has been often inviduouſly remarked, that Advertiſements of Mr. Ward's Medicines, ſaid to be authentic, not publiſhed by us, have paſſed unnoticed; We think proper to ſay, as a General Anſwer to ſuch Remarks, That the known Efficacy of the late Mr. Ward's Medicines under the Sanction of Mr. Page, his unparallel'd Generoſity in preſenting them to the Public; the very reaſonable Prices at which they are ſold, owing to the Bounty of our moſt Gracious Sovereign; and the very laudable Purpoſes to which the Profits of the Sale of the ſaid Medicines are applied, viz. the Aſylum and Magdalen Charities; muſt make any other Notice of Perſons, baſe enough to attempt the defeating ſo benevolent and extenſive Deſigns, totally unneceſſary.

New Inn and Assembly Room at Margate,

May 10, 1765.

MITCHENER begs Leave to acquaint the Public, that he has carried every Accommodation for Bathing in the Sea to the highest Degree of Perfection. He has lately opened a Warm Salt Water Bath for the Use of those to whom it might be inconvenient to venture into a Cold one; it may be brought, in a few Minutes, to any Degree of Heat which may be required, according to the Regulation of Farenheit's Thermometer, which has been provided for that Purpose: The same Bath may occasionally be made use of as a Cold one, whenever the Sea may be so rough as to render Bathing in the Machines unpleasant. Many new Houses have been lately built, and are daily building; great Improvements are making in others, that the Lodgings may be as convenient as possible for the Reception of Company. He never did nor ever will spare any Expence to procure the best Provisions, Wines, Tea, &c. which can by any Means be had. The Number of Subscribers to his Assembly-Room amounted in the last Year to 515, which has greatly exceeded that of any former Season: Having received so great Encouragement from the Nobility and Gentry, he thinks it his Duty to acknowledge it with all Gratitude; and to assure them at the same Time, that nothing in his Power shall ever be wanting which may merit their future Favours.

N. B. The Water of the Warm Bath is changed with every Bather.
